

WELCOME TO AMSTERDAM

My name is _____ and I am your host. Before heading out to enjoy all that Amsterdam has to offer, here are a few simple guidelines to help you live like an Amsterdammer and be a good neighbour while you're in town.

CYCLING IN AMSTERDAM

In Amsterdam we love cycling, and we're rather good at it (so we like to think). If you're not a skilled cyclist, I would advise you to choose other means of transport. If you are, and decide to discover the city by bike, then please follow all traffic rules and pay extra attention to trams and the tram tracks.

RESPECT THE CITY

Amsterdam is a welcoming city and I am excited to host you. Please ask me about local customs, like how to use public transport, and respect the rhythm of the city. Beware of cyclists when crossing the street and be conscious of the noise rolling suitcases make on our cobbled streets.

SAFETY

Safety comes first. Please make sure you always lock doors and windows behind you, and take good care of your personal belongings inside and outside.

HOUSE RULES

Please be respectful of my space, common areas and follow the local ways. Rubbish goes out on _____ and check out time is _____, unless pre-arranged.

ACTIVITY

Amsterdam is a very old city, with many old buildings, which often have very thin walls and wooden floors. In old or new buildings, we live close to our neighbours so please think of my home and neighbourhood as your own and be mindful of the noise you might make.

GO LOCAL

I am a proud Amsterdammer, and I'm proud of my neighbourhood. I believe there's so much more to Amsterdam than just the city centre and the main tourist attractions. Flip over this card to find some hidden gems and my favourite local recommendations!
